

Back by Popular Demand:

Introduction to Emergency Preparedness Class

The Monterey Fire Department is sponsoring a 3-hour
Introduction to Emergency Preparedness class:

Saturday, January 14, 6-9 pm
In the Main Hall of the Monterey City Youth Center
777 Pearl St., Monterey

Classroom doors will open at 5:45 PM.

There's an emergency. You are told to "Shelter in Place." What does that mean? What should you have on hand to keep yourself and your family safe?

OR

There's an emergency. You are told to evacuate. What do you take with you? There are some basic things that you can have at the ready.

Do you have a Plan A for emergencies or a Plan B?

To learn more...join us.

This is an all-risk community wide introduction planning class in preparing people to deal with most emergency situations.

Attendees teens to seniors; ages 13-16 accompanied by an adult.

Instructor: Mike Brassfield, Emergency Planner and a Monterey CERT member.

No costs for the class.

RSVP is appreciated at conamonterey@aol.com